WILSON SUGAR BILL WILL COME UP NEXT

THE MEASURE WILL BE DIS-CUSSED TOMORROW

The House Will Talk It Over In the Morning—A New Currency Bill Is Now Proposed—Startling Statement Made Touching Seals—Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The Wilson sugar bill will be taken up in the house tomorrow. A new and practical turn to the Hawaiian subject was given by Mr. Hale (rep., Me.), who introduced an amendment to the diplomatic and consular bill providing $500,000 for the survey of a cable route connecting the Hawaiian islands with the United States.

Mr. Smith (dem., N. J.) then had read a bill which attracted much attention. It provides for a non-partisan currency commission of twelve members to make investigations of fiscal questions and for an issue of bonds to produce revenues for the government. Mr. Smith said he was convinced that so little time remained for legislation that no bill would be passed the present session. Under the circumstances he proposed this plan, which would set on foot a full investigation with a view to securing the proper remedy. It was desirable, he said, to have a non-partisan commission in order that its work might commend itself to the new congress.

Mr. Jones (dem., Ark.) added to the interest on the currency question by presenting a bill which has been discussed in the finance committee. Its reading was followed with close attention owing to the prominence of the senator in shaping most of the finance committee work.

Mr. Jones said: "I am not a believer in bonds, but I am willing to submit to them as a matter of necessity as long as there is coupled with it a sensible, manly, honest recognition of silver. If the feeling throughout the country is properly recognized then I will agree to the issue of bonds and I will agree to it under no other conditions."

Mr. Stewart then took the floor to argue against the Jones bill.

The Nicaragua canal bill was then taken up and Mr. Turpie resumed his speech against the measure. He became extremely personal at one point and arraigned Mr. Morgan, who is in charge of the bill. Mr. Turpie proceeded to urge that the proposed mortgage to be given the company was diaphanous and a mere pretense. The senator spoke of the canal company stock as watered and that this whole project was a combination of "fraud and water." At the close of Mr. Turpie's remarks the senate went into executive session, and then at 4 o'clock adjourned.

SMITH'S CURRENCY BILL.

Favors a Commission and an Issue of $500,000,000 Gold Bonds.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Senator Smith's currency bill provides that the President shall appoint four commissioners from civil life, no more than two of whom shall be members of the same political party. The president of the senate shall appoint four senators, no more than two of whom shall be members of one party. The speaker of the house is to designate four members under the same conditions. The senators and representatives chosen are to be members of the Fifty-fourth congress. These are to be known as the "monetary commission." It is made the duty of the commission to take into consideration and to investigate thoroughly all the various questions relating to the currency so far as may be necessary to the establishment of a judicious system of currency on a permanent basis. The bill also authorizes the issue of $500,000,000 of 3 per cent bonds, redeemable in gold coin at the expiration of ten years and bearing 3 per cent interest. The bonds are to mature thirty years from date and may be redeemed in twenty years. The proceeds of the bonds are to be used to defray current expenses of the government and for the redemption of United States legal tender and treasury notes issued under the act of July 14, 1890. The bonds are to be of the denominations of $20 and $50 and multiples and will be free from taxes. They must be paid for in gold, or the secretary may accept United States notes or treasury notes under the act of 1890.

National banks may issue circulating notes to the amount of bonds deposited with the secretary of the treasury, and the tax on such circulation is reduced to one fourth of 1 per cent.

Section 3 provides that no national bank shall retire its circulation without written authority from the secretary of the treasury.

Section 4 says that national banks desiring to retire the whole or any part of their circulating notes are required to deposit gold coin equal to the amount of the notes to be retired, and at all times to keep on deposit with the treasurer of the United States in gold coin a sum equal to 5 per cent of their outstanding circulating notes, to be used for the redemption of such notes.

IN THE HOUSE.

Starting Statement Touching Seals Is Made by Mr. Dingley.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—A reply from Secretary Carlisle to Mr. Dingley's resolution calling for information relative to the effects of the inauguration of the Behring sea regulations decided upon by the Paris tribunal, laid before the house yesterday drew from Mr. Dingley a statement as to the sealeries situation. He declared that Secretary Carlisle's response showed the Paris regulations had been a flat failure. He said the seals would all be exterminated within five years.

Mr. Reed asked if it was not true the United States government was spending a large sum of money to enable Canadian sealers to do their work more effectively, and Mr. Dingley replied that it was.

Mr. McMillin from the ways and means committee reported a resolution calling on the secretary of the treasury for the cost of supporting a "kingly government" in Samoa.

The house then went into committee of the whole and took up the sundry civil appropriation bill. Mr. Sayers (dem., Texas), who was in charge of the bill, explained its provisions and new features. It carried $38,540,721—$7,843,093 less than the estimates and $4,298,945 more than the bill for the current year. Some minor amendments were offered to the bill and lost, and the house adjourned.

New Ruling on Juries.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Among the important cases decided by the Supreme court recently was one determining the century old question, "Are juries judges of the law as well as of facts in the criminal cases?" It was decided in the negative, with two dissenting opinions. The question came before the court on an appeal from the judgment of the United States court for the northern district of California in a murder case. Justices Gray and Shiras were the dissenters.

Legislator in Role of Lyncher.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 24.—Representative Allen, of Douglas county, introduced a resolution in the house yesterday setting forth that Representative W. A. Robertson of Holt county was charged in the public press with being a member of the vigilance committee which is charged with the murder of Barrett Scott, and calling for an investigation of these charges.

Hearing on Shipping Bill Closed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The delegation of shipping people now here from Milwaukee, Chicago, Buffalo and other cities of the great lakes interested in the navigation of these waters, had their final hearing before the house merchant marine committee yesterday. At the conclusion of the hearing the committee adjourned until tomorrow, when Chairman Fithian says a vote will be taken on the bill.

Heavy Requisition for Pensions.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The secretary of the interior has issued a requisition on the secretary of the treasury for $12,575,000 for the quarterly payment of pensions, at six agencies, as follows: Topeka, Kan., $3,600,000; Indianapolis, Ind., $2,700,000; Philadelphia, $1,825,000; Knoxville, Tenn., $1,800,000; New York city, $1,350,000; and Louisville, Ky., $1,000,000.

AFTER DELINQUENTS.

Indiana Legislature Will Investigate the School Board of Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 24.—Representative Van Arsdel of this city offered a resolution in the legislature yesterday for a committee to investigate the Indianapolis school board. On account of the recent scandal regarding extravagance of the board, this is a pet move with all Indianapolis newspapers and exposures implicating prominent citizens supposed to be concerned in deals here are expected. A resolution was adopted to investigate charges of a local newspaper that members of the legislature were subsidized by the railroads. This means an investigation of the pass business. Senator Boyd, who has introduced a new fee and salary bill, makes the charge that a county officer, member of the County Officers' association, that has the strongest lobby here in years, indirectly offered him a bribe of $1,000. He refuses to give the name of his would be briber and little attention is being given to the charge. Senator Thayer is reported hopelessly ill at his home in Warsaw.

THE SCOTT LYNCHERS.

Twenty Farmers Confess They Had Been Asked to Help in the Matter.

O'NEILL, Neb., Jan. 24.—The work that was done in the Scott case yesterday when Attorney-General Churchill was here has been prolific of important results. When the attorney-general guaranteed them protection fully twenty farmers admitted that they had been approached and asked to join the murderers. Others had seen the band during the twenty-four hours in which the tragedy occurred, and had formed a pretty distinct idea of the identity of some of the lynchers.

Italian Miners Making Trouble.

OTTAWA, Ill., Jan. 24.—Sheriff Yockey and Deputy Barrett were summoned to Rutland last evening on account of an outbreak among the large force of Italian miners employed up to three weeks ago in the Northern Illinois Coal company's shaft at that village. The company owes the men several weeks' pay.

Lord Randolph Churchill Is Dead.

LONDON, Jan. 24.—Lord Randolph Churchill is dead. He passed away at his residence here at 6 o'clock this morning.

A SCORE WENT DOWN WITH THE CHICORA

NO DOUBT IS LEFT AS TO HER FATE.

More Wreckage Was Found At South Haven Just Before Noon and the Company Have Given Up All Hopes For Her Safety—The Loss Is Heavy.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—There is no doubt whatever that the Graham & Morton steamers Chicora is lost. A dispatch received here says that more wreckage was found at South Haven this morning and that there can be no question but what the boat and crew are lost. This is thought to be conclusive evidence and the owners of the boat and friends of those on board have given up and despair and gloom have settled over the place. With each stray bit of news the belief that the Chicora has foundered becomes more convincing. At 9 o'clock last night came a report that portions of the upper works of the Chicora had been found off South Haven. This was corroborated by later telegrams from the same point and J. H. Graham, the principal owner, who until then had not doubted the safety of the Chicora, gave it up for lost.

There is no boat at this point that can break through the ice pack now and the projected cruise of the Petoskey in search of the missing boat is deferred. It is thought the Petoskey can get out of the harbor to-day. The vessel owners and relatives of the missing ones are frenzied by the delay of the rescuing parties, which were planned two days ago, but which have not moved yet.

The terrible truth is forcing itself on all that the pieces of bulwarks and windows found on the east shore only twenty-five miles north of here and almost directly opposite South Haven were parts of the staunch ship Chicora. The first of these reports came here yesterday forenoon, when a member of the life saving crew of South Haven came here and reported that a vessel had been sighted five miles off that point. It was said a farmer named Plummer had seen it. Capt. Graham discredited the report. At 5 o'clock a telegram was received from Capt. Ed E. Napier of South Haven saying a piece of the upper works of the Chicora had been found there on the ice.

Capt. Napier, who formerly lived in Chicago, is regarded as a perfectly trustworthy man and one of the most skilled seamen on the lake. A telegram from him said: "We have just found some of Chicora's upper works in the ice off this place. There is no doubt she has foundered. I am just going five miles north of here to see what there is there that Mr. Plummer reported in the morning."

Efforts were made all day yesterday in the office of the steamboat company here to make a complete list of those who were aboard the Chicora. It is said there were twenty-four persons. There has been much discussion as to the number of passengers, but it is now known there was but one, Joseph J. Pearl of the firm of Howard & Pearl, druggists at St. Joseph. D. Ballenger, a manufacturer of overalls at St. Joseph, was reported as among the passengers of the boat. He is at present in Indiana.

The list now stands:
CLARK, JAMES R., clerk, St. Joseph.
DOWNEY, GRANT A., oiler, Detroit.
DAVIS, JESSE, colored, porter, Benton Harbor.

HODGES, JOHN, watchman, Baltimore.
LYNCH, NATE, colored, cook, St. Joseph.
MARKS, JOSEPH, wheelman, Benton Harbor.

MALONE, JAMES, pantryman, Chicago.
MCCLURE, ROBERT, chief engineer.
MORGAN, M. W., head waiter, Benton Harbor.

ONE COAL PASSER, name unknown.
ROBERTSON, THOMAS, watchman, Baltimore.

STINES, ED, captain, St. Joseph.
STINES, BENNIE, second mate, captain's son.

SIMONS, C. D., first mate, Benton Harbor.

SIX DECK HANDS, names unknown.
TWO FIREMEN, names unknown.

WIRIZ, A., second engineer.

The cargo of the Chicora was flour, valued at $18,000, there being 600 tons of it stowed away between decks. The cost of the vessel, furnished, was $160,000. The Graham & Morton Transportation company carries only fire insurance, so, if lost, the loss will be total.

Millions Left to a Farm Hand.

MAY'S LANDING, N. Y., Jan. 21.—Frank Burgess, a laborer employed upon the farm of Capt. William Burgess, his uncle, at Hammon, has fallen heir to a large estate left by his mother's brother, Manderson Bangs, who recently died in Australia, possessed of several million dollars' worth of property.

Wrecked in the Orient.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 21.—The steamer Peru, which arrived from China and Japan last evening, brought among her passenger Capt. W. H. Gould of the American ship Mary L. Stone, which was lost on the eastern side of Formosa island, Nov. 24.

Indianapolis Libel Suits Dismissed.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 24.—The suits for libel filed by Tynde, Palmer of Philadelphia in October against the Journal, News, Sun and American Tribune of this city, for $50,000 each, have been dismissed in the circuit court for failure to file a cost bond.

BIG BROOKLYN MOB ROUTED BY TROOPS

700 STRIKERS ATTACKED THE
NON UNION MEN.

The Trouble Occurred at Twenty-Fifth Street and Third Avenue But the Militia Soon Put the Rioters To Flight—Blood Was Shed Yesterday.

BROOKLYN, Jan. 24.—Seven hundred strikers mobbed the cars manned by non-union men at Twenty-fifth street and Third avenue this morning and the militia were called upon to disperse them. Yesterday affairs grew worse in Brooklyn instead of getting better. In the afternoon a man named Thomas Carney was fatally shot by a private of the Thirteenth regiment. Carney is a roofer. He was on the roof of house No. 444 Hicks street. It is said he threw stones at the soldiers. His statement was that he was only viewing the marching of the troops. At the hospital it is said Carney could not live. At midnight the day's casualties showed a sad record. One man dead, another fatally injured, and six men badly hurt. It is claimed the troops fired indiscriminately at all open windows along the route, and many narrow escapes are reported, women and children being among the number.

There was a scrimmage at Fifty-third street when Troop A assisted in opening the Third avenue line of the Brooklyn Heights road. Obstructions had been placed on the track and twenty troopers went out with workmen to clear things away. At Fifty-third street 250 rioters rushed in front of the cavalry, throwing stones. The soldiers were ordered to draw sabers and make a charge that meant business. They did so, and in the charge one man was badly hurt and several others slightly. Then the track was cleared without further trouble.

Harry Ahns, the East New York citizen shot by a Seventh regiment sentinel at the Alabama avenue stables Tuesday night, died at St. Mary's hospital at 11 o'clock yesterday morning.

The going out of the linemen has complicated matters materially, rendering it impossible for the companies to get the wires repaired. There are 800 electricians on the various trolley systems. These services were never more needed than now. Master Workman Connolly says the going out of the linemen was a trump card; that it means victory. He says, however, that he has a better card reserved for playing. He will not say what it is, but it is inferred that the going out of the linemen may bring the power house men and other electrical workers out through sympathy.

There were yesterday eighteen lines in operation against thirteen Tuesday. A delegation of residents of Green Point called on the mayor and informed him for nine days they had been shut off from communication with the rest of the city and asking him to take possession of the railroads in the name of the city. Mayor Schieren said he had the matter under consideration.

Considerable difficulty is being experienced in securing food for the employees of the railroad companies in Flatbush. The restaurantkeepers and store keepers refuse to sell their goods to any one who is actively engaged in defeating the strikers.

Major-General Nelson A. Miles, who was in command of the federal troops in Chicago and is now in command of the department of the east, does not believe federal troops will be needed. The executive board of District Assembly No. 75, K. of L., informed President Norton of the Atlantic avenue system yesterday that they had officially resolved their willingness to place the entire strike question as it affects them in the hands of W. R. Richardson, secretary and treasury of the American and New York State Street Railroad associations, to adjust and settle in their behalf. President Norton refused to either entertain the proposition or enter into any discussion of the situation. The company has agents all through the county engaged in hiring men for their cars, but are not meeting with much success.

FIVE JURORS SECURED.

Difficulty Experienced in Getting Men to Try Hayward.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Jan. 24.—The panel of jurors was on hand when court opened yesterday morning for the continuation of the Hayward trial. The panel being a new one Attorney Smith made a brief statement of the contents of the indictment. Several men were refused on various grounds. The examination continued all of the afternoon, and it was nearly time for adjournment before the fifth and last man of the day was secured. The special panel of fifty men drawn Tuesday afternoon was exhausted before court adjourned for the day and two men on the third were questioned and excused. It is not unlikely at the present rate that half a dozen panels will have to be drawn before the jury is finally selected. Adry Hayward was taken before the counsel for the defense late Tuesday and told over again before Attorney Erwin his confession related a short time ago, in which he charged that his brother had stated to him that he intended to kill Miss Ging.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—The sum of $1,200,000 gold was withdrawn from the subtreasury.

BIG BOAT BLOWN UP.

English Barge and Her Crew Destroyed Today.

GRAVESEND, Eng., Jan. 24.—The Government Barge Petrel, loaded with gunpowder, exploded near here this morning and no trace of the crew has been found.

DEBS IN COURT AGAIN

Conspiracy is the Charge Made at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—Debs and his associates were again arraigned this morning, the charge against them being conspiracy.

NEW LABOR BILL.

Wright and Olney Measures Not Liked to Pass.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—There is likely to be a most interesting discussion in the house committee on labor on the relative merits of the two plans for arbitration, for which Labor Commissioner Carroll D. Wright and Attorney-General Olney are sponsors. The authors of the measures are expected to speak before the committee. Commissioner Wright has a reputation beyond the limits of the United States as one of the foremost authorities on labor questions, while Attorney General Olney is a high authority upon the legal principles involved. There was a discouraging dearth of interest in the arbitration question for a time among those who might naturally be expected to lead in the discussion, but the last week has brought to Chairman McGann of the labor committee many communications, giving evidence that the labor unions are awakening to the importance of the matter. Some of the criticisms and comparisons of the proposed systems are interesting. Fault is found in certain quarters with the feature of Attorney General Olney's plan which would give the attorney general power to apply for a receiver, who should manage a railroad in the interests of the public when the employers and employees refused to submit to arbitration disputes which threatened to impair or did injuriously affect the public interests. Curiously enough the criticism passed upon this scheme is that its tendencies are socialistic and that it is the longest step which has been advocated by high authority in the direction of government control of railroads.

An objection offered to Mr. Wright's plan for a commission by some laboring men is that a permanent salaried commission might become allied to the corporation in its sympathies. The Olney plan makes the chairman of the interstate commerce commission the chairman of the arbitration commission while his colleagues are appointed one by the employer and one by the employees. It is contended by one of Mr. McGann's correspondents that two temporary members might be counted upon to stand for the interests of their constituents, leaving the balance of power in the hands of the chairman. It is hardly probable that the house will be able to pass any arbitration bill this session.

ILLINOIS LEGISLATURE.

Routine Proceedings in Upper and Lower Houses.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 24.—The election of Shelby M. Cullom was ratified yesterday in the house and senate. In the house Mr. Crafts called up the report of the statutory revision commission, which was filed last Saturday. It was ordered printed and referred to the judiciary committee. A number of bills were introduced, among them one by Kaiser, to increase the fees of justice of the peace about 25 per cent; by O'Harnett, to require trains to stop at crossings with other railroads three minutes to enable passengers to make connections with trains on such other railroads, and by Wendall, appropriating $65,000 to establish a hospital for incurable insane. Mr. Mauritzson introduced a bill to regulate primary elections. It provides for the incorporation of political parties and the selection of their central committees by a vote of the members of the party. The primary organization is to be a ward or township club. Each member is to subscribe to a written form affirming allegiance to the party whose club he joins. Primary elections are to be conducted much as regular elections are now held, and penalties are provided for violations of the law.

The senate unanimously concurred in the joint resolution from the house asking Illinois members in congress to support the bill pensioning McClernand.

The republicans of the senate caucus met last night and by a unanimous vote approved the list committees as prepared. This is the first time in fifteen years the action of the republicans has been made unanimous in this regard. The list will be announced in the senate to-day. A bill to provide for a state board of arbitration was offered by Senator Mahoney. Senator Wells introduced resolutions of sympathy in regard to the death of Miss Stevenson, daughter of the Vice-President, which were adopted unanimously.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 24.—W. D. Washburn was yesterday retired and Gov. Knute Nelson elected to fill his place in the senate of the United States.

BIG OSHKOSH BLOCK WENT UP IN SMOKE

BLAZE AT THE SAWDUST CITY
THIS MORNING.

Eastman Building on Main Street Totally Destroyed Entailing a Loss Of $15,000 With $8,000 Insurance—Merchants Occupying the Stores Also Lose by Smoke and Water.

OSHKOSH, Jan. 25.—Fire this morning gutted the Eastman block on Main street. The loss is total and will reach $15,000; with an insurance of $8,000. Numerous merchants in the block suffered smaller losses by smoke and water.

Five Burned in a Brooklyn Fire.
NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—Two men and a boy were burned to death in a Brooklyn fire last night. Two others are so severely injured there is little hope of their recovery. The fire occurred in the four-story brick building, Nos. 11 and 13 Schenck street. No one seems to know how the fire started. The victims had evidently tried to reach the staircase to escape, but had been overcome with the fumes of the burning leather.

FOREIGNERS IN PERIL.

Advance of Japanese on Che-Foo Causes a Panic.

LONDON, Jan. 24.—A dispatch from Che-Foo says that sailors from all the foreign warships have been landed to protect the consulates of the different countries they represent. Advice to the Pall Mall Gazette, under date of Dec. 4, reports that a panic existed then among the inhabitants of Che-Foo on account of the proximity of the Japanese soldiers to that city, and the Chinese troops were said to be on the point of mutiny. It is added that, owing to diplomatic objections, the plan was not to land any blue jackets from the foreign warships without urgent necessity for so doing. But the signal men ashore and aloft were to remain on the lookout day and night so long as the weather was clear and safe. It is added that frequent gales of snow and spray obscured the signals in town. Continuing, the Pall Mall Gazette's correspondent says: "All the male foreigners, numbering about thirty, are armed, and they are able to hold the Chinese in check until help arrives." But, he adds, "God help the outlying American missions."

ANTI-TOXIN FOR SMALLPOX.

Government Surgeon Conducts Experiments with Favorable Results.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Dr. J. J. Kinyoun, past assistant surgeon of the United States marine corps, who was sent abroad by the government to investigate the diphtheria anti-toxin treatment, has contemporaneously been conducting experiments with regard to the treatment of variola, or smallpox, by its anti-toxin. His reports favorable results to the supervising surgeon-general, and announces his intention of continuing his investigation on lines already established and will submit his conclusions in a later report.

FORMS NEW CABINET.

Composition of M. Bourgeois' Ministry is Given Approximately.

LONDON, Jan. 24.—The reports today from Paris give the following as the approximate composition of the new French cabinet: M. Bourgeois, president of the council and minister of the interior; M. Hanotaux, foreign affairs; M. Coehery, finance; M. Cavaignac, war; M. Lockroy, marine; M. Terrier, public works; M. De Verninac, agriculture; M. Combs, public instruction; M. Doumer, commerce; Maurice Lebon, colonies; M. Leveillé, justice.

Ancient Couple Wed

NORWALK, Conn., Jan. 24.—Rev. Frank Robbins, pastor of the Norwalk Baptist church, received a visit last evening from Harvey I. Brewer and Mrs. Martin S. Straw, who asked him to marry them. Mr. Robbins was surprised, as Mrs. Straw's husband died but four months ago. Mr. Brewer is 87 years old, and this is his third matrimonial venture. Mrs. Straw is 77, has outlived four husbands and says she will outlive this one.

Dug for Water and Found Gold.

PORT JARVIS, N. Y., Jan. 24.—Julius Mulford, living about a mile from Singman's Ferry, Pike county, while digging a well on his farm a short time ago, encountered a seam of rock. He noticed something bright in the rocks, which looked like gold. He reduced some of it in a crucible and sent it to New York and received a reply that it was gold. Mulford is very reticent about the affair.

They Dislike Sovereign.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 24.—District Assembly No. 16, of the Knights of Labor, has decided to withdraw from the general assembly and will hereafter continue as an independent labor organization. The assembly was organized by T. V. Powderly, and since his defeat as master workman by Mr. Sovereign the members of the assembly have been more or less dissatisfied.

Hay Men in a Combine.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 24.—At a meeting of hay dealers of the country, held here yesterday, a national association was formed.

The ninety-nine interments reported for 1894 were distributed as follows: Janesville, 75; Rock county, 7; Wisconsin, 6; other states, 11.

The report of Treasurer S. C. Burnham was also accepted and Volney Atwood, C. B. Conrad and James Sutherland were elected trustees for three years.

A meeting of the board of trustees followed the stockholders' meeting. Volney Atwood presided at this meeting and W. F. Carle kept the minutes.

Before the meeting opened E. Storrs Barrows, of Denver, brother of the late Dr. Barrows, came in and addressed the board expressing the regrets of Mrs. Barrows and her thanks for the action taken by the association. He stated that she felt very nearly allied to Oak Hill cemetery association from the fact that Dr. Barrows had been associated with it from its inception. Mr. Barrows also extended an invitation in behalf of Mrs. Barrows and himself to the board of trustees to be present at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

W. T. Vankirk was elected a member of the board of trustees to fill the unexpired term of two years of the late Dr. Barrows.

Officers were elected as follows: President—Volney Atwood. Secretary—W. F. Carle. Treasurer—S. C. Burnham. I. C. Brownell and W. T. Vankirk were elected members of the executive committee. They with the three officers comprise the executive board.

The board of trustees voted to attend the memorial services of the late Dr. Barrows next Sunday morning in a body.

Some People Are Tired Of city life, and to get on a farm seems to them to be the acme of happiness. Many such people have a little home in the city, and if they could only turn it in toward the payment of a farm they would be happy. We are just the victim they are looking for; we have a very good farm of 80 acres, not quite four miles from the city, that we will sell cheap, and take a house and lot for half its value and a mortgage back on the farm for the balance. So if you have a house that is paid for of about $2,000 value, you can get a farm without paying down a cent of cash, and go right to work this spring and make your mark as a farmer. Come and see. Yours very truly, GEO. L. & SARAH H. CARRINGTON.

CRISP NEWS FROM STEBBINSVILLE.

Some Leaf Has Been Sold—Stripping Is Begun—Other Happenings.

STEBBINSVILLE, Jan. 24.—The rain and fog on Sunday made the farmers feel glad for they can now get tobacco down and commence to strip. Charles Russell and wife from Janesville, visited at Thomas Young's, on Sunday last. Miss Minnie Phelps from Milton visited at this place last week.

Michael Crouse, who formerly owned a farm here but now of Iowa is visiting old friends in this place. Ben Towns will rent his farm at this place if he cannot sell by March 1. Jewett Farman sold sixteen pig steers last week for fifty dollars each. Albert Otto will move on a farm in the town of Albion in the spring.

There was a dance at J. K. Spikes on Thursday evening of last week. There have been a few sales of '93 tobacco around here at five, three and one cent, but most of the farmers are waiting for better prices. Miss Laura Dickinson of Albion Prairie visited at J. D. Spikes a few days last week. Some from this place attended the camp fire at Edgerton and report as having a good time. Dr. Willard McChesney of Edgerton is seen quiet often now on our streets. The Farmers Creamery have paid for December milk on an average of eighty-six cents per hundred.

We Want To Buy The best farm of 100 to 120 acres or even a little more, that $45 per acre can possibly get. No use in showing one to us unless it is a decided bargain at the price. For such a bargain we will pay two-thirds spot cash and the balance good city real estate at its cash value. We want it within five to ten miles of this city or even nearer if we can find it. If we make this deal we want to make it at once and let us repeat, don't come to us on this deal unless what you offer is a most decided bargain and you want to sell "real bad." If you can fill this entire bill come on and see.

Yours very truly
GEO. L. AND SARAH H. CARRINGTON.

Like Last Year's Snow. Your special attention is called to our $16 suits and $4 pants made to order. We guarantee fit, style, workmanship and quality of goods. What more can we do? JERE DOBBS' BOOKS

WILL BE EXAMINED

LABOR COMMISSIONER'S METHODS TO BE LOOKED INTO.

Resolution Passed By the Legislature This Morning—Workhouses For Tramps—Historical Library Building Asked For—Journal the State Paper.

MADISON, Jan. 24.—The accounts of Labor Commissioner Dobbs will be examined by an expert, a resolution embodying that idea having passed this morning. Both houses held short sessions this morning. The bill making the State Journal the official state paper now only needs the signature of the governor to make it operative. New bills were introduced providing for joint work houses to be built by adjoining counties for the confinement of vagrants and others charged with lesser offenses; appropriating $360,000 for a University and Historical society library building; providing for a license fee to be paid by sleeping car companies and allowing the extension of the boundaries of the city of Milwaukee. A resolution to stop new bills after February 12 was passed. Senator McGill has a good roads bill ready to introduce. It provides for the construction of good roads by local assessment and county and state aid.

Senator Timme is preparing a bill to prohibit insurance companies or associations doing an insurance business by insuring the lives of persons under eighteen years of age.

There is a disposition in the legislature to abolish all contingent funds of state officials except the contingent fund of the governor. Contingent funds are provided at present for the state veterinarian, labor statistician and game warden, while other officials have a fixed amount for expense purposes.

An effort will be made at this session to amend the laws governing state aid to county fairs so as to make it as originally enacted in 1889. That law provided that the state should pay to every county fair association 40 per cent. of the premiums it paid, if no gambling or liquor selling was permitted.

A bill has been prepared making it a misdemeanor for a person to advertise himself as a lawyer without first becoming entitled to practice according to state regulations.

The State Normal Regents. Another batch of appointments by the governor, it is expected, will be sent to the senate tomorrow. The appointments will be for members of the state board of normal school regents. There are three positions on the board to be filled, and there will be more to fill by the first of February. These to be made immediately are in place of E. M. Johnson, of Whitewater, John Hume, of Oshkosh, and W. J. Turner, of Milwaukee. The men who will succeed these members are E. D. Coe, of Whitewater, A. E. Thompson, of Oshkosh, and Charles Pittelkow, of Milwaukee, or pretty certainly so, for it is believed the governor has practically determined upon them. These appointees take the places of regents, who have never been confirmed by the senate.

It is also understood that three more appointments have been decided upon and they may also go to the senate tomorrow. They are to take the place of three members whose terms now expire as follows: W. E. Brown, Marinette, in the place of W. D. Parker, River Falls; Frank C. Ostrander, Superior, in the place of F. F. Ainsworth, River Falls and W. D. Connor, Auburndale, in the place of Byron B. Park, Stevens Point. The three members holding over are Ira A. Hill of Sparta, D. J. Gardner of Platteville, Michael Kirwan, Manitowoc.

GOSSIP FROM THE STATE TOWNS

THERE was a riot in the Baraboo jail yesterday, caused by a number of tramps setting upon George Copper, one of their number, and trying to kill him. His cries brought the sheriff to his assistance and the tramps were driven back to their cells at the muzzles of revolvers. Copper's injuries are serious and he may not recover.

THE Rev. Mr. Percival of Racine, was arrested by Marshal Bellar of Burlington, on charge of stealing property valued at $125 from the trunk of Charles Herriman of Waukesha, the arrest being made just before the train left for Burlington, to which place Mr. Percival was taken.

OH! FOR STRENGTH!

Weak Nerves, Tired, Exhausted Bodies.

The Complaint Of Thousands Upon Thousands.

Health and Strength Are Within Your Grasp.

Dr. Greene's Nervura Makes You Strong and Well.

It Is the Great Restorative Of Brains and Nerves.

Oh, those nerves of ours, how they do bother us! Weak, tired and nervous is the complaint everywhere. We overwork, dissipate, weaken our bodies, ruin our health, and finally break down. Sleeplessness and indigestion are early symptoms, for the nerves are too exhausted and irritable to permit rest, and the stomach too weak to digest food.

It is nerve and brain exhaustion which makes the brain tired, and the arm nerveless, the limbs trembling, the muscles weak and the whole body without strength, energy or ambition. It is loss of nerve and vital power which is slowly but surely sapping the very life itself, and unless help is sought from the right source, the end will be shattered nerves, insanity, with softening of the brain, nervous prostration, heart failure, paralysis or premature death.

Beware of such symptoms! A well known druggist, Charles W. Eggleston, Esq., 329 Park Avenue, Worcester, Mass., suffered from nervous prostration and all its terrible symptoms. He writes the following letter telling what he knows is the best way to get well.

"Some time ago I was taken with nervous prostration. I suffered terribly with my nerves and could get no sleep at all. I became fearfully exhausted and my stomach was in a terrible condition from dyspepsia, and I could eat hardly anything.

"I used several medicines but without benefit. Being in the drug business myself, and having had many customers speak in the highest terms of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, I determined to try it. After taking only one-half bottle I began to feel much better.

"I slept soundly at night, and my appetite was splendid. After taking three bottles, I ate three square meals a day, and had not the slightest distress. My nerves were perfectly strong, and I felt like a new man being completely cured of my troubles.

"Out of respect I bear the manufacturers of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and my desire to have the sick and suffering made well and strong, I heartily recommend it to people who are sick. I most certainly recommend it to people who are the same as I was, nervous and inclined toward dyspepsia and indigestion, and suffering from not being able to sleep well at night."

As this letter is from a dealer in medicine, his word is authority on such matters. Everybody knows that Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is the great leading medicine of the age. Take it and you will be made strong, healthy and vigorous. Doctors recommend it because it is the prescription of a physician, and because they know it cures.

Dr. Greene is the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, discovered it. He can be consulted free, personally or by letter, at his office, 35 West 14th St., New York City.

Money Is Just as Good Now as it ever was in the purchase of a farm. If you don't have a house to put in exchange toward payment for a farm we shall be glad to sell you a good 80 acre farm for cash payment of one third its value and wait on you for the balance as long as you can reasonably wish. Right along side this farm we own another 80 acres so that you can buy 160 acres if you desire, or if that is too deep for you to go in debt we will sell you the 80 and rent you for a term of years the other 80. We are here to do good and will do you good any way you can fairly ask us to do it. Anyway, cash sale or loan; exchange its a cinch for you. Call around and talk. Yours Very Truly, GEO. L. & SARAH H. CARRINGTON.

HUMANE SOCIETY IS

VERY MUCH ALIVE

ALL INTERESTED CITIZENS ARE INVITED TO JOIN.

All Cases That Are Thought To Require Investigation Should Be Reported To President Palmer Or Agent S. B. Kenyon—Committees Named.

Many people seem to think that the Humane society is dead, but this is a mistake. They are very much alive and they request that every citizen will report every case that they think needs investigating, to President W. G. Palmer or Agent S. B. Kenyon at Stevens' drug store and prompt measures will be adopted. The society is now well equipped for active work and at the last meeting committees were appointed as follows:

Prosecution and Legislation—John M. Whitehead, W. T. Vankirk and Mrs. C. S. Crosby.

Humane Education—Rev. S. P. Wilder, Mrs. William Smith and Miss Maclean.

Membership and finance—Mrs. E. Butler, W. G. Palmer and Miss Chittenden.

Cruelty to human beings—Mrs. H. S. Woodruff, H. W. Frick and Rev. Dr. Halsey.

Cruelty to dumb animals—S. B. Kenyon, E. T. Fish and Frank Hazelton.

The list of members is as follows; and all citizens are requested to join and thus help the good work along.

Dr. G. H. McChesney,	W. H. Butler,	Mrs. M. E. McHenry,	S. C. Burnham,	J. L. Bostwick,	Miss Chittenden,	Mrs. C. S. Crosby,	Dr. G. W. Chittenden,	H. W. Frick,	E. T. Fish,	F. C. Hasselton,	E. B. W. G. Palmer,	Rev. E. H. Pence,	Rev. A. Porter,	S. B. Smith,	C. W. Schwartz,	Mrs. A. D. Sanborn,	Dr. J. W. St. John,	Mrs. William Smith,	Mrs. Emma Veeder,	W. T. Vankirk,	John Thorngood,	J. M. Whitehead,	J. C. Wilmarth,	Miss E. L. Williams,	Mrs. E. D. Tallman.

A table has been placed in the public library and supplied with all sorts of humane literature. Tags have also been furnished, with directions for the care of horses that have been left out in the cold.

A WEEK'S EVENTS AT PORTER. Several Sick People Are on the Gain—Ice Houses Filled.

PORTER, Jan. 24.—Mrs. Dennis Casey and daughter Rosella, who have been visiting at the former's parental home in Rubicon, are expected home this week. Mrs. J. Hendrick has been on the sick list but is improving. Miss Mary Collins spent the past week in Footville. Ed. Attley of Fulton is sawing wood in this vicinity. Sunday's thaw enabled most of the farmers to get their tobacco down and are now stripping. Edgerton Creamery Company filled the Eagle Creamery ice house last week. The farmers hauled the ice and the company cut and packed it. Mr. Bates, Sr., is reported ill since the reunion on his birthday, but we hope to see him around again soon. Dr. McChesney of Edgerton, had quite a few patients in this locality recently, among them being Mrs. Dooley and little child, and Daniel McCarthy, all suffering from the grip, but are convalescing. C. H. Bates Jr., is now on the road every day buying tobacco. Among the crops purchased are A. B. Fessenden and E. Raymonds. Mr. and Mrs. L. Barret went to St. Paul Friday to be present at the ordination of their son, at St. Thomas seminary which took place on Saturday. They were accompanied by two of their sons, John and Will. Mr. Hayes' folks are entertaining company from Madison. Rev. Loughran of Nebraska shook hands with old friends on Saturday. Report of Eagle district No. 3 for the month ending January 18: Number of days taught, seventeen; number of pupils enrolled, thirty-three; average daily attendance, twenty-one; number of cases of tardiness, nine; number of visitors, two; names of those neither absent nor tardy, Willie Dooley and Florence Fessenden. BEGINNING EARLY is half the battle. Don't wait for your cough to run into Consumption. There's always danger of it. The germs or seeds of this disease are all around you. All that they want is an inactive liver and the scrofulous condition that follows it, to develop them. You need Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, now, to thoroughly purify your blood, build up sound, firm, honest flesh, and make every weak spot strong. It's a certain remedy for the earlier stages of Consumption.

Campbell, Ohio. Dr. R. V. Pierce: Dear Sir—Two of our best doctors pronounced my case consumption. I spent nearly $200 and was no better. I concluded to try the "Golden Medical Discovery." I bought eight bottles, and I can now say with truth that I feel just as well today as I did at twenty-five, and can do just as good a day's work on the farm, although I had not done any work for several years. I give you all the thanks.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

1712—Frederick the Great born in Berlin; died at Sans Souci 1786.
 1776—Benjamin Lincoln, American Revolutionary general, born in Hingham, Mass.; died there 1810.
 General Lincoln was a farmer who joined the army in the field with a division of militia in 1777. He defended Charleston against Prevost in 1779, and with Count d'Estaing assaulted Savannah in 1780. In the siege of Yorktown he led a division.
 1870—The United States warship Onondaga run down off Yokohama by the British merchant steamer Bombay; 20 officers and 150 of the crew lost. The Onondaga was a wooden gunboat which had served in the war. The collision took place in the night, and the Bombay steamed on her course without responding to the distress signals on board the Onondaga, which sank suddenly in 20 fathoms. Only two boats' crews, numbering 61, were saved.
 1888—Frederick Ferdinand Plotow, composer of "Martha" and several popular operas, died, born 1811.
 1888—Justice Lucius Quintus Cincinnatus Lamar of the United States supreme court died at Macon; born in Georgia 1825.

New Medical Treatment.
 A doctor, whose home is near Frankfort, Ky., presents a new medical treatment, which consists in exchanging liquid for aerial draughts. Live in a perpetual draught, so he preaches, and you will never catch cold. And his practice is in keeping with his precept. At his establishment all his patients, many of whom are suffering from serious diseases, are constantly subjected by day and night to strong currents of air, and when they go out generally dispense with hats and bonnets.

 "Did you ever pay any attention to theosophy, Mr. Slogo?" she asked, with deadly sweetness in her tones.
 The young man admitted that he had not.
 "Oh, it is just lovely!" she continued. "I have often thought how perfectly charming it would be to send one's astral self down into the parlor to entertain, while one's real tired self was sound asleep."
 The ticking of the little clock became so painfully loud that the young man was forced to look at it and suddenly discover that it was really growing so awfully late.—Indianapolis Journal.

The Glorious East.
 "Out in Oregon," said a man from that state, "the air is so clear that you can see the peak of Mount Shasta in California, from the peak of Mount Hood in Oregon, a distance of two hundred and seventy-six miles."
 "Here in the east we can see much farther than that."
 "O, come now."
 "It's a fact. The moon is two hundred and forty thousand miles away, but we can see it on a clear night."—Life.

Symptoms.
 He pondered in silence for a moment. When the ornate clock had measured a moment he spoke:
 "Darling," he said, "do you think your father divines my purpose?"
 The lovely girl did not ponder at all. She answered at once.
 "Egbert," she whispered, "I think he suspects. For upward of a week now he has devoted an hour each afternoon practicing the drop kick with a bag of sand."—Detroit Tribune.

Most Cordial Frankness.
 Mr. Dobbins had been urging a friend whom he met to come and dine with him at his home. The gentleman still hesitated in accepting the invitation, so Master Thomas concluded he had best put in a word.
 "You better come," Tommie advised him. "We don't have any great shakes of dinners right along, but ma always slings herself when we have visitors."—Judge.

A Peculiar Simile.
 Mr. Westside—Doosenberry's wife has died. She was an excellent woman—a much better woman than he is a man.
 Mr. Eastside—That's so. Now Doosenberry is a widower, and he reminds me of a stalk of asparagus growing in a garden.
 "How so?"
 "Well, you see his better half is under the earth."—Texas Siftings.

This Is Highly Practical.
 Mrs. Maryatt—I always manage to get my husband furiously mad at me if I want to get a favor out of him.
 Mrs. Nuwed—That's queer. What for?
 Mrs. Maryatt—Then he always scolds me frightfully and afterward when he's repentant has to make it up by granting my request.—Chicago Record.

An Ornithological Reason.
 Mamma—Why are you always drumming on the side of the house, Tommy?
 Tommy—Because I am like a gobbler, mamma.
 Mamma—Why are you like a gobbler?
 Tommy—Because I have a pair of drum sticks, but no drum.—Puck.

A New Beginner.
 Young Wife—When my husband gets cross I always threaten to go home to my mother.
 Old Wife—Mercy, child! how simple you are! You should threaten to have your mother come to you.—Judge.

Brothers.
 "How many are you, sweet maid," I asked.
 With a smile like the light of heaven
 She counted her two and her sister's three
 Flances by them set free.
 And answered: "We are seven."
 —Detroit Tribune.

CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE.

"Well, well, I really and truly believe that our young lady has had an appointment with her beau."—Fliegende Blaetter.

A Short Wait.
 Witherby—I forgot my latchkey last night, and when I came home I couldn't get in, so I had to wait until the family got up.
 Plankington—How long was it, old man, about half an hour?—N. Y. World.

Neatly Put.
 He—I am in love. Will you be my confidante?
 She—Certainly. I am at your service.
 He—Well, would you advise me to propose to you?—Brooklyn Life.

She Could Not Pass It.
 Miss Hojack—Hasn't Miss Tomdick passed her twentieth birthday?
 Miss Flipp—No; she has been carrying it with her for several years.—Town Topics.

Short But Sarcastic Dialogue.
 "Do you have to treat your maid as if she were a member of the family?"
 "Mercy, no! We have to be very kind and polite to her."—Standard.

A Woman's Idea.
 Dentist—Madam, you will have to have some bridge-work in your mouth.
 Patient—All right, doctor—suspend me at a cantalver?—Judge.

A Reminder to Uncle Mark.
 Mark was growing old and had seen a great deal of the world. The result was that he was rather given to relating stories of his vast experience that were courteously doubted by the younger men. One night a young fellow told a story that was especially wonderful, and some one turned to the old man with the query: "Doesn't that remind you of your younger days, Uncle Mark?" "Well," said the old man, "it does remind me of a story I heard when I was a boy." "What was it?" asked the other. Uncle Mark looked solemn. "It was a darned lie," he said.

Instrument of Fate.
 An old man who believed "what was to be would be," lived in the West, and was one day going out several miles through a region infested by savage Indians. He always took his gun with him, but this time found that one of the family had it out. As he would not go without it, some of his friends tantalized him by saying that there was no danger of the Indians; that he would not die until his time came anyhow. "Yes," said the old fellow; "but suppose I met an Indian and his time had come; it would not do, no how, not to have my gun."

THE CHARITY BALL IS SET FOR FEB. 19

TO BE GIVEN AT THE LIGHT
INFANTRY ARMORY.

Tickets Are Fifty Cents Each Or One Dollar a Couple and In Addition the Goods Donated Will Be Sold At Auction—Other News Notes From About Town.

The entertainment committee of the Oak Lawn hospital, consisting of Mrs. M. E. Crosby, Mrs. Marion Leavitt, Mrs. E. D. Tallman and Captain W. T. Vankirk, met at the rooms of the Business Men's association to decide upon date and make arrangements for the annual charity party. After talking it over, the Armory was selected for the event, and February 19 is the date. Tickets will be sold at fifty cents each or one dollar a couple. Contributions will be solicited, and the goods sold for the benefit of the hospital. The association hopes to realize sufficient money to pay off the indebtedness, and open the institution at an early date, for the benefit of the public. The cause is a most worthy one, and tickets at fifty cents each should sell rapidly. At least $1000 worth of tickets should be sold.

The Lowell Hardware Company has completed invoicing and is now preparing for 1895. They will make a great effort to surpass 1894 which was the most prosperous year they ever experienced. E. W. Lowell, the senior member of the firm actually bought and sold twelve bankrupt stocks during the year and they also sold more Garland steel ranges than some people sell in five years. It will not be long before they will have something more for you.

The third entertainment of the People's Lecture course comes off tonight, and the lecture will be delivered by Dr. A. A. Willits, whose lecture on "Sunshine" here two years ago is still fresh in the minds of all. His subject is "On the Wing—A Summer Flight Over the Sea." The lecture will be preceded by a band concert by the Y. M. C. A. band, commencing at 7:30 o'clock. Doors are open at 7:15.

The ladies of this city will no doubt recall with pleasure the former visits of Mrs. C. B. Crane of Chicago and New York. She will be at the Myers House Friday and Saturday, Jan. 25 and 26 with a full and beautiful line of stamped and embroidered goods and materials for the same. We bespeak for her the kind attention of all ladies who need goods of this kind. Mrs. George L. Carrington.

The clerical force of J. M. Bostwick & Sons were very pleasantly entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Ray Knippenburg prior to her departure for Sioux Falls, S. D. Miss Knippenburg is well and favorably known and has many warm friends here who will regret her departure.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vankirk entertained a party of Janesville friends at their Center home, the Bower City guests being Messrs. and Mesdames A. F. Spooner, H. L. McNamara, H. D. Murdoch, David Conger, Charles A. Sanborn and C. E. Bowles and Mrs. C. B. Evans.

Dress Goods, Exclusive
Our assured command of the markets for the finest dress goods is a fact to be considered carefully. Years of hard work have given our dress goods stock clear and acknowledged leadership. Each new season marks higher achievement. This season the collection of elegant novelties makes the stock more unapproachable than ever. This moderate statement avoids comparison; that is left to the public. But intelligent comparison makes sales faster than the most skillful advertising and salesmanship. We are the only dry goods house in the city showing 1895 styles. BORT, BAILEY & Co.

LENTZ HAS A CLAIM AGAINST BREHNER

THE FAMILY DIFFICULTY
AGAIN IN COURT.

Son-in-Law Now Says That the Old Gentleman Owes Him $275 For Board, Washing and Care During the Last Year and Began Suit Today.

The family difficulty between Mrs. Carl Lentz and her father, Martin Brehner, did not end when Judge Bennett issued an order directing the daughter to pay back to her father five hundred dollars in United States bonds and one hundred dollars in cash. Another chapter in the dispute was made public this morning when Carl Lentz commenced suit in the municipal court for the sum of $275, for board, washing, and nursing the aged father of his wife for the past year. The action was begun this morning, and continued for one week. Sutherland & Nolan appear for the complainant, and Smith & Pierce for the defendant. It is expected the whole family trouble will be made public when the case is retied. Brehner, as stated before, is an old German citizen, and is unable to speak English, consequently an interpreter is necessary in court.

MINSTRELS SING FEB. 11 AND 12
Imperials Will Sing Two Nights, and Their Performance Will Be Good.

The date of the performance of the Imperial Minstrels has been settled. The show will be seen on Monday and Tuesday evenings, February 11 and 12. The members of the company have been working hard, and three rehearsals a week have been held regularly. "I know what a minstrel show is," said a member of the company last night, "and our performance will be as good as the town ever saw. We have some good talent, and the boys all take great interest. The rehearsals have all been well attended, and when people see our performance, they will be astonished, I think."

WE MAY NOT NEED A NEW CHARTER
If the Kimball Bill Passes Money Could Be Raised

It is now claimed that should the bill introduced in the assembly by Assemblyman Kimball become a law, there will be no necessity for the adoption of the uniform charter. The Kimball bill limits the amount of tax in one year to 3 per cent of the valuation, the same as the uniform charter, and it is claimed this will meet all requirements of this city.

Just For a Week
And just as a FURBORE DEAL, we offer a very comfortable home in the Fourth ward for $450. Just think of it, FOUR HUNDRED AND FIFTY DOLLARS will buy an almost new house of three good rooms, woodshed, good well of water; nicely located, and as a fact, it would be cheap at $600. If you have $100 cash to pay down you can have this place and pay the balance $5 or $6 per month. You never saw such a chance before and you never will again to get a good little home. This chance will cease within a week whether we sell or do not sell. Come and see us about it. Yours very truly,
Geo. L. & Sarah H. Carrington.

Merchant Tailoring.
The clothing house of J. Weisend at 21 W. Milwaukee street is being disposed of and in its stead Mr. Weisend will conduct one of the best merchant tailoring establishments in the country. He will devote his entire time and attention to the business, and endeavor to give Janesville a merchant tailoring establishment that she may feel proud of. The new spring woollens are now arriving and ere many days the hum of sewing machines and the busy work of from 50 to 75 workmen will take the place of the ready made clothing which is now being closed out at cost.

Notice to the Public.
We want it distinctly understood that when we sell you an article and it does not turn out just as we represent it, return and have made right or get your money. We want not a customer to remain away because of some little defect. We will cheerfully remedy to your entire satisfaction, and you can always do much better by returning, than to go somewhere else. T. J. Ziegler.

A Rare Opportunity.
We have a nicely furnished house and a delightful location that we want to let to an agreeable man and wife who will board the owner. This is a chance to get a beautiful home on very easy terms. Call and see us about it. Yours Very Truly,
Geo. L. & Sarah H. Carrington.

Are You Loaded?
If so, we can help you unload, if you desire.

We want to buy a nice modern, small house, of say seven or eight rooms, well located, at less than it is worth. You will note that it must be a BARGAIN. For such a house under such circumstances you will find a cash buyer at our office. If you are loaded, unload. Yours very truly,
Geo. L. & Sarah H. Carrington.

Notice to Contractors and Builders.
Having purchased the Shopbell Norris planing mill, I am now prepared to furnish estimates on all house-furnishing goods such as sash, doors, blinds, moulding, etc.

I take possession of the mill February 1st, until that time please call at the Hub, 103 W. Milwaukee street. J. B. GREEN.

CLEM ELLISON WON THE WATCH.

Played a Great Game of Billiards at Chicago Last Night.

Janesville people will be interested in the following article which appeared in the Chicago Herald today. The Herald says:

Clem Ellison fairly ran away with the third of the series of games for the amateur billiard championship of the state at the warehouses of the Brunswick-Balke-Collender Company, Wabash avenue, last night. His opponent was the board of trade expert, E. C. Rein. About 200 spectators witnessed the game.

Ellison won the bank and ran 6 from the spot stroke, when he tripped on a single cushion shot. Rein failed to count and then Ellison found eight billiards, but fell before a cushion draw. He was evidently a little nervous but Rein was worse. He seemed utterly unable to gain mastery over the ivories, and in the first seven innings scored but five points. Ellison in the meantime had secured 63, with runs of 14, 15, 19 and 22 in the collection. Rein made his first double figure in the eighth inning, when he scored 10, but it was evident he could not compete with his nervy little antagonist, who added 33 in his fourteenth inning and 30 in his next attempt by as pretty billiards as could be produced anywhere. Ellison's position play was as perfect as could be, and several long draws and bank shots the entire length of the table caused the audience to applaud with vigor.

Both men played easy billiards for several innings after the fifteenth inning, but in the twenty-fifth inning Ellison woke up, and with a great display of skill and accurate position work made the highest run so far in the tournament by a collection of 45. The score was now: Ellison, 270; Rein, 63; and Ellison's average was a fraction under 11. At this point, however, he showed the first signs of weakness. In eight innings he scored but 6 points, and it required eleven innings for him to secure the necessary 30 points for the game. The balls in the meantime were breaking very badly for Rein, and he was utterly unable to recover even a portion of his lost ground.

A RUNAWAY HORSE'S LEG BROKEN.
Fall On the Ice Forced the Bone Through the Flesh.

A handsome brown horse, attached to a buggy, ran away this morning on Milton avenue. When about three miles out the animal fell on the icy roadway, breaking one of its hind legs, the bone protruding through the flesh. The horse belonged to a farmer residing at Milton, whose name could not be learned.

ONE DAY'S RECORD OF DEATHS

Mrs. Emeline Bullard.
Mrs. Emeline Bullard died this morning at the home of her grandson, Engineer Jay Walker, 163 Center avenue. Mrs. Bullard was born October 10, 1809, in Pennsylvania. For a year past she has made Janesville her home. In June last she fell, breaking her hip, since which time she has been confined to her bed. The funeral arrangements are not completed, but notice will be given later.

Funeral of John Collins.
William Keating, James Reed, John Whalen, Thomas Whalen, Michael Gagan and H. Helgersen were the pall bearers at the funeral of John Collins yesterday, and Rev. Father R. J. Roche conducted the services at St. Mary's church. The interment was in Mount Olivet.

Funeral of Edward T. Sweeney.
The remains of little Edward Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Sweeney, were buried in Mount Olivet this afternoon. Funeral services conducted by Rev. Father Collins were held in St. Patrick's church at 2 o'clock, attended by a large number of friends of the bereaved family.

Funeral of William Jeffris.
A large number of Janesville people attended the funeral of William Jeffris of the town of Rock, this afternoon, the services being held at the home at 1 o'clock, at the Grove church, town of Center, at 2 o'clock.

SCHOOLCRAFTS ASK THAT THEY BE PAID

CLAIMS AGAINST M. R. ASHTON
IN COURT.

Two Boys Worked On the Stone Farm and Their Sister Helped In the Housework—Judge Dunwiddie Of Monroe, Hears the Case For Judge Sale.

Contested claims against the estate of Matthew R. Ashton are occupying the county court this afternoon, and Hon. Brooks Dunwiddie, the venerable county judge of Green county is presiding in place of Judge Sale.

There are three claims, the claimants being John and George Schoolcraft, who ask pay for services for work on the farm and Edith Schoolcraft, who claims wages for work in the household.

These claims aggregate about three hundred dollars, and were first presented against the estate of the late Daniel Stone, and disallowed by Judge Sale. The same claims are now presented against the Ashton estate, and Judge Sale having once passed upon the claims, considered it but right to call Judge Dunwiddie to preside.

TWO BAD MEN WERE NOT HELD
Chief Acheson and Sheriff Appleby Were Witnesses at Spring Green.

When Chief Acheson and Officer Cochrane pulled Charles Smith, Mike Moran and William Murphy from a C. & N. W. box car a few days ago, they knew that they had caught three bad men. Therefore when the chief and Sheriff Appleby were summoned to Spring Green last night to testify at the examination of Smith and Murphy, who were charged with blowing a safe at that town, they were not surprised. The two men were arrested for the crime by the Madison police soon after they were liberated from the Janesville jail. They were sentenced here on January 4, and Murphy was liberated January 12, and Smith on the January 16. As the Spring Green job was done on January 8 and the two crooks were in the Janesville jail at that time they were discharged. Smith is a bad man. He was arrested here last July with a set of burglars tools in his clothes, under the charge of carrying concealed weapons and was suspected of robbing Hon. Alexander Graham of his gold watch at that time. When he was arrested he had a small burglar's lantern in his pocket.

THE BRIER BUSH.

Like some bare life set thick with thorn,
Hedged hard by duty, desolate,
It grew apart, alone, forlorn,
Unsought by beauty, left by fate.

But something passed along that way.
A thought? A smile? A touch? A word?
A bit of sunshine through the gray?
A throbbing, lifting, lighting bird?

God knows. But on the morrow morn
That brier was a burst of bloom.
Somewhere, maybe, a soul was born,
There was such incense of perfume!

Not one who passed with interests life
Had dreamed its wonder unconfessed,
That such a bare and lonely life
Held all of beauty unexpressed.

—Virginia Woodward Cloud.

MY SHORT STORY.

At last my story was done. My friends had always told me that I had literary ability, and now that my manuscript lay completed before me I felt that they were right. I had written it over and over again, polishing a crude paragraph here and strengthening a weak one there, putting in a touch of rhetorical ornament in one place and removing it where it seemed overdrawn in another, until I thought (and my wife, too) that the style was just perfect.

Then my wife copied it off in her own hand, to make sure that it should be perfectly legible, and we both went over it together, to see that the dots and crosses, hyphens and quotation marks, capitals and punctuation were all in due order, for we were determined that the editor of The — Magazine should not be tempted to a rejection by any carelessness in the preparation of the manuscript. A stamped envelope was inclosed for its return, if not available, and the story was consigned to the mail.

For the next two or three days I spent most of my spare time in trying to moderate my wife's hopes, by pointing out how many different questions had to be considered in deciding upon any given manuscript, entirely apart from its literary merit. My confidence was beginning to wane, and I was anxious that her pride in my ability should not be crushed if my story should be rejected. Then I received a short notice stating that the manuscript had been received and would be examined and reported upon at an early date.

By this time we had said all we could think of on the subject, and our conversation turned upon other themes, but the eagerness with which the mail was scrutinized whenever the postman came betrayed readily enough what was uppermost in our minds.

At last, after a full month of waiting, the longed for envelope came. I sat down at my desk to open it, making a wretchedly inadequate pretense of perfect composure, and my wife stood looking over my shoulder. With trembling hand I tore open the envelope and drew forth a small slip of paper:

"Your manuscript, entitled 'A Moonlight Romance,' has been accepted for publication. Remittance for the same will be made in due course."

There it stood in black and white, with the editor's signature at the bottom. My wife threw her arms around my neck with a shout of joy, and I upset the inkstand in my effort to make a fitting demonstration of my feelings. I was at last an author, and posterity would read my name and fame in the histories of English literature, along with the accounts of Dickens and Scott and Cooper and Holmes and Howells! My wife had hardly had time to recover herself sufficiently to speak before I was deciding which one of the great magazines should be permitted to publish my next story and what style of binding I should choose for my first collected volume.

As soon as our excitement subsided a little we began to speculate as to the probable amount of the promised remittance and the time when it would come. On the latter point we soon decided that payment would probably not be made until the story should be published, but on the former we found more difficulty in coming to an agreement. I calculated that the story would make 12 to 14 pages, and I did not expect more than $20 per page, or somewhere in the neighborhood of $250 for the whole. But my wife was quite sure that it would be more. She had read that as much as $500 was often paid, and sometimes, when the writer was very popular, even more than that. Of course I was not yet known as a story writer, but the story was so good, and the editor would be so anxious to secure my future work, that she felt sure he would pay at least one-half more than I suggested.

After two or three days of happiness, during which I made a rough draft of three more short stories, purchased a ream of writing paper and meditated more or less concerning a serial, we began to talk about what we should do with our money for the "Moonlight Romance." We decided at once that I must have the works of such of the standard English novelists as were not already on my shelves. These, in good, plain editions, made for use instead of how, we thought could be had for about $50. Then I felt sure that my wife would have many distinguished allers as soon as my literary position should become known, and her parlor was rather shabby. So I told her she must have it repapered and put down a new Brussels carpet. That would take 50 more. We had both staid close at one all the previous year in order to save money for the last payment on our house, and so we concluded to take a tip on the lakes, which would cost about $100. We did not feel like doing this, however, without some additions to our respective wardrobes, which could take probably $75 more. As these sums went a little above my estimate, we concluded not to settle definitely upon anything else for the present, but threw out a hint about a new piano, her opinion as to the worth of my story should prove correct.

The April and May numbers of the magazine appeared, but my story was not yet published and was not among the advanced announcements for June. By this time I was well along toward the completion of the plot for my serial, but I felt the need of a wider reading in English fiction than I had yet done. "What is the use of waiting?" said my wife. "The payment on the house isn't due until September. You can take some of that money for the books and replace it with the money for the story."

"Sure enough," I answered. "I am glad you thought of it," and before sundown the wagon came from the bookstore with $50 worth of English novels. I went to the parlor to ask her to come and see them, and there she was on her knees trying to darn a hole in the old carpet. Just think of it! The wife of the author of "A Moonlight Romance" engaged in such mental work as that, and her husband's study full of new books! I told her at once that it would never do. The parlor must be fixed up at once. By Saturday night the new paper was on the walls, and the new Brussels was down, the money, of course, being secured by the transfer of $50 more from our house fund, to be replaced from the pay for my story. Some of our friends began to wonder how we could afford so much expense just then, but we kept the secret to ourselves and told them they would see it in due time.

When the June number of the magazine came, we found the following item among the announcements for July: "A short story, entitled 'A Moonlight Romance,' by a new writer of great promise."

I had felt just a little uneasy about using the money saved up, to pay the remainder on our house, when we had no certain means of knowing how soon the money for the story was to come, but it was all right now, with two months to spare.

"Why not take our trip now," said my wife, "while the weather is at its best?" Why not, to be sure? It was just the thing and would enable me to get some local color for a story which I had in mind dealing with pioneer life on the shores of Lake Michigan. So we drew $175 more from the savings bank, leaving just about $30 on deposit, got the tailor and dressmaker to do the necessary work for us in a great hurry, closed up our house and started.

It was a magnificent trip. The fresh lake breeze, the green islands that we passed, the hazy blue line of the wooded shore in the distance, the foam sparkling in the sunlight, all contributed to make it the happiest experience since the days of our honeymoon.

Two days after our return the July number of the magazine and a letter bearing its imprint arrived in the same mail. We were so eager to see the story in print that we left the letter unopened until we had cut the leaves of the magazine and feasted our eyes upon every page. Then I tore open the letter and drew out a check:

The Commercial National Bank of — will pay to the order of Mr. — the sum of seven hundred dollars and fifty cents ($750.00).

Editor of the — Magazine.

I have given up literature for the present and have secured $300 from the Building and Loan association to make the final payment due on my house. My wife positively refuses to read any of the new books which I bought and has asked me not to say anything more about the trip on the lakes, but for some reason or other she doesn't seem to regret in the least the part of the money which went for the traveling dress, the wall papering and the Brussels carpet. —J. Hanson Williams in New York Post.

Early Infantry Equipment.

Among the arms now obsolete which formed a large part of the infantry equipment in the days when the army was started was the pike, which was in the form of a spear, with a flat and pointed head, mounted on a staff from 13 to 18 feet long. The firearm in general use at the time was the matchlock.

What would a sergeant major of the present day, with his men armed with the magazine rifle, think of such a weapon as this: "Attached to the lock of this musket was a pan; also a cock, the hammer of which was somewhat in the form of a bird's, serpent's or dog's head. This head was split, and a screw compressed or eased the slits. The piece being loaded first with powder and then with ball, some powder was poured into the pan. The pan was then shut to keep this 'priming' from dropping out and to keep it dry. When the soldier wished to fire, he fastened his burning match into the slit of the cock, opened the pan, looked to his priming, presented and pulled the trigger. The match, falling into the powder in the pan, fired it."

"Between the pan and breech of the barrel communication was established by means of a small hole. When the piece was being loaded, the grains of powder were naturally rammed and shaken down close to this hole, and when priming the soldier took care to perfect the communication of the powder in the pan with that in the barrel. Thus the explosion in the pan caused the ignition of the charge."—All the Year Round.

Patience.

The adult who is not willing to wait is as much a child as the infant in the high chair. One cannot expect mature thought, patience and an appreciation of interchange of sentiment in a child. When he is a child, he sees as a child, he thinks as a child, but when he becomes a man he is popularly supposed to put away childish things, and it is on this line of reasoning that the new table rule has been instituted.

Out of Place.

The Deacon (at revival meeting)—My poor brother, are you prepared to die? Party Who Has Wandered In (indignantly)—Say, why don't you drop business in a place like this? I'm a life insurance agent myself, but I have never yet talked shop in a church.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

SURROUNDED BY MYSTERY!

A Great Mistake.

A recent discovery is that headache, dizziness, dullness, confusion of the mind, etc., are due to derangement of the nerve centers which supply the brain with nerve force; that indigestion, dyspepsia, neuralgia, wind in stomach, etc., arise from the derangement of the nerve centers supplying these organs with nerve fluid or force. This is likewise true of many diseases of the heart and lungs. The nerve system is like a telegraph system, as will be seen by the accompanying cut. The little white lines are the nerves which convey the nerve force from the nerve centers to every part of the body, just as the electric currents are conveyed along the telegraph wires to every station, large or small. Ordinary physicians fail to regard this fact; instead of treating the nerve centers for the cause of the disorders arising therefrom they treat the part affected.

Franklin Miles, M. D., L.L.B., the highly celebrated specialist and student of nervous diseases, and author of many noted treatises on the latter subject, has since realized the truth of the first statement, and his Restorative Nerveine is prepared on that principle. Its success in curing all diseases arising from derangement of the nervous system is wonderful, as the thousands of unsolicited testimonials in possession of the company manifest during the remedy simply prove.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerveine is a reliable remedy for all nervous diseases, such as headache, nervous debility, prostration, sleeplessness, dizziness, hysteria, sexual debility, St. Vitus dance, epilepsy, etc. It is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. Restorative Nerveine positively contains no opiates or dangerous drugs.
